Students To Teach At South

Seven student teachers from California State College at Long Beach will do their practice teaching this spring at South High School, Dr. Harold Widney, assistant principal, has announced.

The student teachers and their subject areas are: Ruth Brossart, English; Kathy Mardesch, speech and sociology; Maria Santo, U. S. history and English; Suzanne Smith, sociology; Donald Compton, chemistry; Lorelle Young, home economics and world history, and Florence Wyman, French.

College students seeking credential in California are required to complete one semester of student teaching in their major subject.

Two Deft Executives Promoted

The promotion of two executives by Deft, Inc., of Torrance, manufacturer of wood finishing products, has been announced by Frank B. Desmond, executive vice president of the firm.

Bill Sawtell has been named vice president and director of marketing. Harold Mitchell was made general sales manager.

Sawtell joined the firm in 1965 as marketing manager after working for two other national paint manufacturers. Mitchell has been on the Deft staff since the company was formed.

Both men will be located in the Torrance offices at 612 Maple Ave.

CELL FUNCTIONS

Observation of subcellular functions by the electron-microscope is providing basic and exciting results in medical research at the Veterans Administration hospital in Washington, D. C.
